Lifetime Warranty Details for Arise II Pop Up Displays

Arise Pop Up Displays

Every Arise pop up display sold by Northwest Creative Imaging, LLC is guaranteed for the lifetime of the display. The warranty only extends to the original company, organization, or individual that purchased the display. This warranty insures that any manufacturing defect or failure of the frame structure under normal use conditions will be covered at no cost to the customer. The warranty is honored by both the manufacturer of the product, Edge Exhibits, and Northwest Creative Imaging. The warranty does not cover damage inflicted from misuse of the product, shipping damage, or theft.

Other Details

All warranty claims will be handled directly through Northwest Creative Imaging LLC. Standard lead time for a frame repair is 7-10 business days. Parts can be shipped out in 1-2 days if the customer decides to repair the frame themselves. This warranty is only for the frame structure of the display. If the frame is damaged in transport please make a claim within 72 hours of delivery to insure the shipping company will reimburse your cost.
